CLIENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Client Services Agreement (the "Agreement") is between Maple Ridge Bookkeeping LLC ("Maple Ridge") and the client signing below ("Client"). Maple Ridge will provide monthly bookkeeping and payroll reconciliation services for Client on the terms below.

1. Fees and Payment. Client will pay the fees set out in the applicable SOW. Unless an SOW states otherwise, Maple Ridge will invoice monthly in arrears and each invoice is due within thirty (30) days of its date. Late amounts accrue interest at the lesser of one percent (1%) per month or the highest rate permitted by law. Maple Ridge may suspend the Services on ten (10) days' written notice if an undisputed invoice remains unpaid more than thirty (30) days after its due date.

2. Client Responsibilities. Client will provide timely access to the information, personnel, systems and premises reasonably required for Maple Ridge to perform the Services, and is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of all information it provides. Delays caused by Client's failure to meet these responsibilities may extend the schedule and may result in additional fees at Maple Ridge's then-current rates.

3. Term and Termination. This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as provided here. Either party may terminate this Agreement or any SOW for convenience on thirty (30) days' written notice. Either party may terminate immediately on written notice if the other party materially breaches this Agreement and does not cure the breach within fifteen (15) days after receiving notice describing it. On termination, Client will pay for all Services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination.

4. Confidentiality. Each party may receive non-public information of the other party that is marked confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential ("Confidential Information"). The receiving party will use Confidential Information only to perform or receive the Services, will protect it with at least reasonable care, and will disclose it only to its personnel and advisors who need to know it and are bound by duties of confidentiality at least as protective as these. These obligations do not apply to information that is or becomes public through no fault of the receiving party, was known to it before disclosure, is independently developed, or is rightfully received from a third party without restriction. A party may disclose Confidential Information when required by law, after giving the other party prompt notice where legally permitted.

5. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws rules. The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Wilmington, Delaware for any dispute arising out of this Agreement.
