FENWORTH OAKES SOLICITORS

Client care letter and terms of business

Client: _____ Matter no.: _____

Terms of business

1. This agreement sets out the terms on which we will provide legal advice and representation in the matter described above to you. Please read it carefully; it is a binding contract once both parties have signed.

2. Each party will keep the other party's confidential information confidential, use it only for the purpose of this agreement, and return or destroy it on request, except where the law requires otherwise.

3. Our liability for any claim arising from this agreement is limited to the fees paid in the twelve months before the claim, except for fraud or any liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

4. Either party may end this agreement by giving thirty days' written notice. Fees for work done up to the end date remain payable.

5. Responsibility for your matter. Your matter will be handled by the solicitor named in our covering letter, supervised by a partner. If you are unhappy with our service, please raise it with the supervising partner first.

6. Money on account. We may ask you for money on account of costs and disbursements. We hold it in our client account and will account to you for interest in line with our interest policy.

7. Storage of papers. We will keep your file for at least six years after the matter ends, after which it may be destroyed without further reference to you.

8. Anti-money-laundering checks. We are required to verify your identity before we act and may use an electronic identity check provider for this purpose.

This agreement sets out the terms on which we will provide these services to you. Please read it carefully; it is a binding contract once both parties have signed.

Each party will keep the other party's confidential information confidential, use it only for the purpose of this agreement, and return or destroy it on request, except where the law requires otherwise.

Our liability for any claim arising from this agreement is limited to the fees paid in the twelve months before the claim, except for fraud or any liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

Either party may end this agreement by giving thirty days' written notice. Fees for work done up to the end date remain payable.
