1. Our services. We will plan and coordinate your event as set out in the event proposal we have sent you, including supplier sourcing, scheduling, a site visit, a run-of-show document and on-the-day coordination by a lead planner and an assistant.

2. Deposit and payment. The deposit shown above is payable on signing and secures your date. The balance of our fee is payable no later than thirty (30) days before the event. Supplier costs are invoiced to you directly by each supplier unless we agree otherwise in writing.

3. Changes. You may change the guest count up to fourteen (14) days before the event. Changes to the date or venue are subject to availability and may incur additional fees and any supplier charges we cannot recover.

4. Cancellation by you. If you cancel more than ninety (90) days before the event, we will retain the deposit. If you cancel within ninety (90) days of the event, the full fee is payable. We recommend that you take out event insurance.

5. Cancellation by us. If we are unable to deliver the event for reasons within our control, we will refund all sums paid to us. We are not liable for events beyond our reasonable control, such as severe weather, venue closure or travel disruption, but we will work with you to rearrange the event where possible.

6. Suppliers. We recommend suppliers in good faith but each supplier contracts with you on its own terms and is responsible for its own goods and services. We will check that recommended suppliers hold appropriate public liability insurance.

7. Liability. Our total liability to you is limited to the fee paid to us under this contract. Nothing in this contract limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, for fraud, or for anything that cannot be limited by law.

8. Your information. We use the personal information you give us only to plan your event and to contact you about it, in line with our privacy notice. We share it with suppliers only as needed for your event.

9. Law. This contract is governed by the law of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales have exclusive jurisdiction.
